

REMARKS

The Notice of a Not Fully Responsive Reply mailed on April 13, 2006 indicated that claims cannot be withdrawn by Applicants, but only cancelled. Claims 5, 6, 9-17, 21-24, 26 and 28 have been cancelled. Applicants elected claims 1-4, 7-8, 18-20, 25, and 27 identified in the restriction as being drawn to Invention I for examination.

The Notice indicated a species had not been elected. Cancelled Claim 5 of Invention I was identified for Species A, and cancelled claim 6 of Invention I was identified for Species B. All the claims that remain are the claims identified in the Restriction as generic for Invention I. If a species election is still required, Applicants elect Species A.

The typographical error in the previous remarks has been corrected by replacing "78" by "7-8."

Examination on the merits is respectfully requested for claims 1-4, 7-8, 18-20, 25, and 27.

Respectfully Submitted on Behalf of Applicants
J Barry Shackleford et al.
